

DAILY GAZETTE

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1881

GAZETTE GLEANINGS.

Mr. E. Kelly is up from Chaperito. Free lunch at Billy's to-night. All are invited.

Property sold in twenty-four hours by Calvin Fisk, Optic Block.

Capt. Fitzgerald sold one house and eleven lots for $1,950 yesterday.

J. M. Clark, West Liberty, Iowa, is on his way to Las Vegas to plant his money.

Browning's Agency sold yesterday six lots in Rosenwald & Co.'s addition for $950.

We lead the trade in real estate. Come and see if we don't. CALVIN FISK, Optic Block.

Come and let us show you some cheap property, and oblige, Yours truly, CALVIN FISK, Optic Block.

Calvin Fisk sold yesterday two residences and three lots for $1,700 to J. M. Taylor of New York.

By a private letter we learn that Mr. C. R. Browning is at his Missouri home, and is still in poor health.

We have been selling property so fast lately that we are compelled to ask those having property for sale to call in at once and place the same on our books. It will be disposed of promptly. Calvin Fisk, Optic Block.

There is a R. R. man in Las Vegas who answers to the euphonious sobriquet of "Big Shorty," who is said to have eaten, at one meal, and survived it, what do you reckon? five and one-half dozens Saddle Rock oysters.

Col. T. B. Mills speaks in high terms of praise of the hospitality of the Masonic fraternity of Albuquerque. He says they entertained the visiting members of the mystic brotherhood with right royal and fraternal bounty.

We saw Fitzgerald yesterday morning bending under the weight of two coffee sacks full of real estate "tracts" which he was lugging from his office to the postoffice to scatter far and wide and tell people what a goodly land we have here.

Wm. T. Allen, formerly master mechanic in the railroad shops of this city, did not get away yesterday on account of the washout below. Mr. Allen goes from here to Benson, Arizona, to accept a position on the N. M. & A. R. R. He leaves a host of warm friends here, whose best wishes follow him to his new home.

Those who do not think that splendid and large stocks of goods are carried in Las Vegas, should visit Jaffa Brothers' store, since they have stocked up for fall and winter. They will be surprised at the excellent and complete line of goods carried in all departments. Fall stock complete in all departments at Jaffa Brothers.

Owing to the increased demand for advertising space, we will issue a six-page edition of the DAILY GAZETTE tomorrow morning, and will spare no pains to make it an unusually attractive number. Advertisers will find it greatly to their advantage to secure space in this edition, as it will have a very large circulation and afford superior facilities for advertising purposes. A large number of extra copies will be printed and may be obtained by leaving orders before 6 o'clock this evening.

We are permitted to make the following extracts from a private letter from a prominent banker of Kansas, in which it is stated, "Kansas is dead. Three failures of crops and a temperance law is enough to kill anything. I am disgusted and desire a change. When you left Little Rock for Vegas I thought you had made a mistake, but I now see how clear headed you were. What is the prospect in your town for a live man like me?" * * * If we were permitted to answer the question, we should say there is no better town in America for live men than Las Vegas.

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. E. Dowley, New York, is in town.

Mr. J. D. Findley went down to Santa Fe yesterday.

Rev. J. E. Cohenour came up from Santa Fe yesterday.

Messrs. Geo. J. Dinkel and C. P. Hovey returned from the fair.

L. Sulzbacher, Esq., came up from Albuquerque night before last.

New fall stock of goods at Jaffa Brothers complete in every department, wholesale and retail.

Marshal H. J. Franklin took the deserter, Walla, of the 15th Infantry, to Santa Fe yesterday, to turn him over to the military.

Jaffa Brothers have just received their new fall stock of goods, including gents' furnishing goods, hats and caps, carpets, oil cloths, wall paper, etc., etc. It will pay to examine their goods.

L. L. Hoison, manager for P. Coghlan, yesterday was unloading an immense stock of boots and shoes at their store-room on Railroad Avenue. They will have the largest and most complete stock of these goods ever brought to New Mexico.

THE CORNERS.—No. 3.

Being a Discussion of the Postoffice Question.

The GAZETTE man, learning that "a suffering population had simultaneously sprung a nomination" for a new postmaster in Las Vegas, and that "the citizens were with one accord taking kindly to the move, and wondering why it was not thought of sooner," seized his hat, or what remains of it, and sallied forth early yesterday morning—so early as to avoid the proprietor for fear he might get "bounced" for permitting matters of such importance to develop without his having heard a hint of them—to see how "simultaneously," how "kindly" the people were taking to "the move," and how they wondered, etc. The first prominent citizen met on the corner—we prefer talking on the corner—was

MR. J. B. WOOTEN, who, upon being informed that a petition was being circulated asking for the removal of Mr. Furlong and the appointment of Mr. Conkling, said:

"Mr. Conkling may be a good and competent man, but I don't see what claim he has upon the people here that he should ask them to remove Mr. Furlong, who is an old citizen, to make a place for him. I don't see why he should ask such a favor of Las Vegas people as that. Mr. Furlong is an old citizen here, and is as good a man as we ever had in the postoffice, and I guess I've seen something like twenty changes of postmasters in this town. There are always plenty of men who are willing to take an office of any kind, if they can get somebody to sign a petition for them, but I am sure Mr. Furlong can get a better petition in his favor than they can get against him, that is he can get the better class of citizens upon his petition. My impression is that the whole thing is dictated by a spirit of unfounded jealousy against the West Side."

DR. M. M. MILLIGAN said, "I am the main mover in the whole thing. Tell Bro. Furlong he is riding the broncho, and to keep his seat if he can. I think the majority of the people want the postoffice on this side. The fight is not being made so much on account of any fault with Furlong as with the location of the office; again, we want a man who will give his whole time and special attention to the office, and who has no other business to divide his attention. The postoffice belongs to the people, and wherever they want it they will have it."

MR. W. H. SHUPP: "I should be sorry to see any strife get up between the East and West Sides on this matter. We are satisfied with the present postmaster, and the only point is, some of them want to get the office on that side."

COL. T. B. MILLS: "I don't see any necessity for a change. I have no reason to complain against the present postmaster. I really think that this is the best managed office in the Territory, and I have been to Santa Fe and all round. Las Vegas would get twenty poorer postmasters than Furlong where she would get one better one, and in regard to the location of the office, I think the present place is most convenient for all the people of town. I don't like to see the agitation of any matter that tends to create and keep up the feeling of two towns here. In five years more we may afford this, but we can't do it now."

JUDGE GEORGE SUMNER: "I don't want to say anything about this matter. As far as I am concerned I get my mail all right."

MR. W. M. WAITELAW: "That is no fight of mine. I know nothing to Furlong's discredit. I have heard of no complaints against him, nor anything particularly in his favor. I don't really know anything about it."

HON. D. P. SHIELDS: "I know of no grounds on which Furlong ought to be removed. I don't believe in removing an officer when we have a good one, just for the sake of giving the office to somebody else," and at this point the Judge's caution seemed to assert itself and he "shut up tight as a clam."

DR. RUSSELL BAYLY: "I am satisfied with the present postmaster."

HON. MIGUEL A. OTERO: "I deprecate this thing of getting up a spirit of this sort of rivalry between the two sides. I live on our side, I am interested in both, and I want to do anything I can for the interest of the whole town and not for one side against the other. I think you newspaper men are doing wrong to agitate these things in this way. We ought all to work together for the interest of the whole town and I do not like to see such things come up."

JOHN F. BOSTWICK, ESQ.: "I can give you my views about it. I am heartily in favor of retaining Mr. Furlong and Mr. Paxson in the office. The balance of them I don't know. As near as I can understand this petition matter, it is only a private scheme to rent the Milligan building."

MR. O. L. HOUGHTON: "I have no objection to Mr. Furlong. He is a good man and I've got nothing to say against him. That's all I have to say."

We next called at the office of Messrs. Browne & Manzanares. Mr. Browne was out and

MR. F. A. MANZANARES: "With a great heap of unopened letters and telegrams before him on the table took time to give us a pleasant greeting, and say: 'I have no complaint to make against Mr. Furlong, and I don't see any use in fighting about a change. I think the postoffice is in the right place now and when the time comes to change it will be time enough to make a fight on that.'"

MESSRS. GROSS, BLACKWELL & CO.: "We have no fault to find with Mr. Furlong and don't see any necessity for a change. The location of the postoffice will regulate itself in time."

MESSRS. COHN & BLOCH: "We consider Mr. Furlong entirely competent. We have no objections to him whatever."

MR. LOUIS STRAUSS, OF JAFFA BROS.: "We have no fault to find with the postmaster. We employ a man to bring our mail and don't know anything to complain about."

MR. CHARLES TAMME: "The only objection I have is to the location. Furlong is doing well enough but as long as he has the office of course it will be in his building."

CAPT. L. C. FORT: "I don't know anything about it, but think if any change is made, the office should be given to some old citizen."

MR. J. P. HOPPER: "So far as Mr. Furlong is concerned, I have no objection to him. I have always found him a pleasant and accommodating gentleman. The only objection I have to anything in connection with the postoffice is its location."

CAPT. J. J. FITZGERRELL: "I have nothing in the world against Conkling, but I'd rather you'd leave me out of this altogether."

MR. GEO. J. DINKEL: "How about a change of postmasters?" "We don't want anything of the kind. Furlong is the best postmaster we have had since I have known the place, and a man of that kind should not be thrown out simply because of a change in the administration."

DR. E. H. SKIPWITH: "I don't know anything against Furlong. I've known him a long time and he is as square a man as I ever met. I think this is only an effort to get the postoffice to the other side."

PROF. JOHN ROBERTSON: "How about this change of postmasters?" "Well, that's what I want to know; what do you say?" "I say it's a shame. We've a good postmaster and we ought to let him alone."

MR. C. P. HOVEY: "I have no fault to find with Mr. Furlong. In all my relations with him he has proved himself a perfect gentleman, and I shall always be pleased to speak in his favor."

DON. TRINIDAD ROMERO: "Mr. Furlong is a good man and should be retained. I have known him for many years and have never heard any complaint against him personally or officially. We never had a postmaster to give us good satisfaction, and I have been here all my life."
